Worship is the wonder of those who sense that life is more than maps and measurements, data and statistics, timetables and graphs.

Worship is a token of our gratitude for the gift of Love, an openness to the possibility of a Presence, a glimpse perhaps of a world unseen through everyday events and encounters.

The Benediction

Choral Amen

We warmly welcome any friends and visitors who are worshipping with us today and hope that you will feel at home among us. Please come round to the Hall after the service for a cup of tea or coffee and a chat with friends.

Morning Worship is held within St Stephen's & West Parish Church every Sunday at 10 am. Throughout the month of September, Worship will be conducted by the Minister.

Flowers

The contact for September is Shirley Grinyer (775743). Please let Shirley know of anyone who would appreciate being remembered with flowers today.

Macmillan – World's Biggest Coffee Morning

Today you will once again have the opportunity to be part of this annual fundraising event with the Meru bowl being used to collect donations for the very important work done by this great charity.

Autumn Coffee Morning

This takes place next Saturday 30th September between 10 am – 12 noon. Details of the various stalls can be found in the latest edition of the Church Magazine. There are baskets in the vestibule for donations to the Tombola and Raffle. Donations of books should be taken round to the hall today or on Saturday.

May and Sybil

Friendship Circle

The next meeting is on Tuesday 3rd October at 2 pm in the hall when Iain Flett, formerly City Archivist, is coming along to give us a talk entitled "Ma Slessor, Administrator". This will be, I am sure, both informative and entertaining. Please come along and join us. All welcome.

Harvest Thanksgiving Service

This will take place on Sunday 8th October and gifts of flowers will be distributed among the frail, elderly and housebound members of the congregation and gifts of non-perishable items will be donated to the Foodbank. Thank you.

May Masson

Broughty Ferry Churches Group

An open evening has been organised to highlight the plight of refugees displaced by war in the Middle East and North Africa and how we may be able to help, both at home and abroad. This is taking place on Tuesday 10th October at 7.15 pm in Barnhill St Margaret's Church Hall. All welcome and refreshments will be served. For more details please see the posters in the vestibule and hall.

Also, if anyone would be interested in joining the BFCG, please see Jill Oakley.

Intimations for the Order of Service should be given to Linda Parry-Richards by Thursday 6 pm. email: kinloch29@btinternet.com
